An invaluable opportunity to explore the latest and best practice in developing independent Thinkers & Learners. Sixteen practitioner workshops, three cutting edge key note speakers and the opportunity to share ideas and meet with Thinking School practitioners from across the globe.

Key Speakers

Prof. Paul Howard-Jones

Professor of Neuroscience and Education at the University of Bristol. Star of Channel 4's award winning series 'The Secret Life of 4 & 5 Year Olds', famous 'neuromyth' buster and developer of the popular MOOC "The Science of Learning". Paul will be speaking on 'The Science behind Feedback and Learning'.

Prof. Rose Luckin

UCL Knowledge Lab's Professor of Learner Centred Design. Rose's research involves blending theories from the learning sciences with techniques from Artificial Intelligence (AI). She will be speaking on how Artificial Intelligence can be used in the classroom to identify intellectual, emotional and social progress.

Alistair McConville

Co-author of 'Learning How to Learn: How to Succeed in School Without Spending All Your Time Studying', regular TES contributor, adventurer and Director of Innovation & Learning at Bedales School. Alistair will be speaking on 'Learning How to Learn' - What does that actually mean in the classroom?

Workshop Titles will include:

- A Metacognitive Approach to Spelling
- Thinking Routines
- Motivation Matters
- Singapore Maths in a Thinking School
- Thinking Skills to Develop Inference
- Thinking Moves
