

Head of Department/Secondary Humanities Teacher

Amnuay Silpa School, Bangkok

Required for July 2020

We are looking for an adaptable, experienced and committed Secondary Humanities teacher to lead our dynamic Humanities department. The successful candidate needs to be able to demonstrate excellent classroom practice, the ability to motivate students and a willingness to work in partnership with the staff team. The ability to teach Global Perspectives, Geography and/or Psychology would be an advantage.

Employer information

Amnuay Silpa is the leading bilingual school in Thailand. Dedicated to preserving the Thai Language and Culture in our students we have successfully implemented a unique Synchronised Dual Teaching Model, incorporating the UK and Thai Curriculum (taught by Thai teaching staff). Providing high quality education to just over 1000 pupils aged 3-18, Amnuay Silpa is an exciting and dynamic place to teach with a very clear vision for the future. In 2013 ANS was accredited by Exeter University as the First Thinking School in Asia and in 2016 was awarded Advanced Thinking status. As the hub of excellence in the thinking approach, we are able to provide excellent professional development opportunities for those successfully appointed. In June 2017 we also became a CIS Member School and are now are a candidate for accreditation in 2020.

The package on offer includes:-

- A two year contract (renewable)
- A competitive salary (paid in Thai Baht)
- Private medical insurance
- Flight into and out of the country at the commencement and completion of the contract
- End of service gratuity
- An inclusive and well-resourced school
- Small classes
- Professional Development opportunities

Candidates are expected to:

- Possess Qualified Teacher status or a Bachelor degree and PGCE
- Be enthusiastic, adaptable and highly committed
- Have knowledge of the UK Curriculum
- Experience of teaching Global Perspectives and/or Geography at IGCSE/AS/A-level and/or Psychology at A-level
- Have a minimum of two years' teaching experience (desirable) in a UK or British International School
- Have proven leadership experience (desirable)

For an application pack, please contact the School Principal, Mr Joseph Pine at applications@amnuaysilpa.ac.th. Applications are by the official application form only. Please do not send CVs or covering letters with any emails. Further information can also be found on the school website www.amnuaysilpa.ac.th

The school is committed to Safer Recruitment and Safeguarding students and all candidates will be expected to provide an Enhanced Police Check and complete a self-disclosure form.

First round interviews will be held via skype with final interviews held in London from Sunday 8th December 2019 onwards. Shortlisted candidates will be expected to submit a short video demonstrating classroom teaching.